

When it comes to cover supervisors, we do everything by the book

All our cover supervisors come readily equipped with all the necessary tools to deal with the inevitable challenges of the classroom. They will either have enjoyed a comprehensive induction programme with one of our partnership schools or attended our in house cover supervisor training course ran by an ex-head teacher of 20 years.

We are constantly refreshing our base of cover supervisors to meet with increased demand as they have now been a popular choice for schools for a number of years as a more cost effective way for covering absent colleagues.

- ✓ Fully trained
- ✓ Fully vetted
- ✓ Cost effective cover

It's the principle that matters...it's the people that count.
