

Induction & Safeguarding Training for all new recruits...

We pride ourselves on the quality of staff and Safeguarding children is always our priority.

Principal Resourcing is fully compliant with the DCSF Safeguarding Children and Safer Recruitment regulations (January 2007) and ensure we brief all staff prior to placement via our Induction training.

The course is provided to all newly registered Teachers and Support staff and is also offered as a refresher to all established candidates. It covers extremely important issues regarding safeguarding and child protection and also covers our company standards regarding supply teaching.

Course Summary

Safeguarding training, be aware of the current guidelines whilst working with children.

- Clarify behaviours which constitute safe practice
- Assistance in working safely and responsibly
- What might constitute a child protection issue
- How to deal with child protection issues as a supply
- Minimise the risk of malicious allegations

How to be an effective supply teacher/support worker

- Do's and Don'ts of being on supply
- Principal Resourcing Standards
- How to make sure a school asks you back
- Top tips for an effective supply

The Course is taken by Francis Loftus who has 33 years experience as a teacher, with 23 of those at Senior management level. Francis works in partnership with Principal Resourcing on many of our candidate development courses.
