

When it comes to cover supervisors, we do everything by the book.

We have been fortunate enough to work in partnership with a small number of local schools who have been training our cover supervisors on their own comprehensive induction program. With this in mind you can rest assured that they come readily equipped with all the necessary tools to face the challenges that the classroom can present. Prices start at £99 and your consultant will be happy to discuss your requirements.

Cover supervisors have been proving a popular choice for many schools for a number of years now as a more cost effective way of covering absent colleagues. With the introduction of the 'rarely cover' from Sep 2009, Principal Resourcing have enhanced their bank of cover supervisors available to schools.
