

Continued support.

Principal Resourcing appreciate that support staff play a critical role in learning establishments. We aim to provide you with support staff with the knowledge and expertise you are looking for.

Whether you are looking for dedicated one to one support with SEN experience to general classroom experience, we are confident that with our extensive database of experienced support staff we can provide the support you are looking for. Prices vary according to experience but start at £79 per day for general classroom support.

All of our support staff are subject to the same stringent checks that our teachers are: 2 x references (including last position), list 99, qualifications, and an enhanced CRB.
